On this board, you can bookmark discussions. After you've bookmarked one the "bookmark" link shows up in your sidebar. You'll still have to look through the thread to find the comment you particularly liked.

Most browsers these days let you save a page as a pdf. On Chrome you use the print... option. Click the hamburger icon on the top right of the page (other browsers would have something similar):

When the Print screen pops up, you can check "simplify" to just print the discussion without the rest of the
